Dear Sirs.

I understand that you are making a collection of Abraham Lincoln's articles. If so, I have a table which belong to Mr. Lincoln when he lived in Springfield Ill, this table was given to him as a wedding present, when he went to house-keeping. In the only house he ever owned. The table is hand made and carved, marble top, of walnut wood. If interested can give you full details, of ownership.

I just received a circular of Lincoln Lane no 94- Jan 26-1931 Lincoln's attitude towards Chase. very interesting.

Very truly yours-

Charles A. Strange,

Curio

February 6, 1931

Mr. Chas. A. Strange
Rockville, Indiana

My dear Mr. Strange:

We regret very much to advise you that we are not acquiring any curios other than a few small medals and things of that kind.

We are keeping your letter on file, however, and may be able to cite you to some one who would be interested in the table which you possess.

Very sincerely yours,

Director
Lincoln Historical Research Foundation

Dear Sir:

I am writing you asking if you would be interested in a table that belongs to my Mother,
Mrs. Bell Strange of Rockville, Ind.

It is a solid Walnut table with a marble top that Pres.
Lincoln had in his home in Springfield, Illinois.

If you are interested
I shall be glad to answer any inquiry you may desire to make.

Yours truly,
Mrs. Glenn Chapman

TABLE once in pos. of the 1ins.

Mrs. Glenn Chapman
Carbon, Indiana

My dear Mrs. Chapman:

We thank you very much for calling our attention to the table in your possession once owned by Abraham Lincoln.

While we do not have room for it in our museum, it is barely possible I can put you in touch with someone who might be interested in acquiring it. If so I will advise you.

Very sincerely yours,

Director
Lincoln Historical Research Foundation

My dear Mrs. Bolling:

I regret to advise you that we are not especially interested in curios here and I am sending your letter on to Mr. Pratt at Springfield and it seems to me he would be interested in acquiring the table.

Very truly yours,
